So, how long we gonna wait for you to learn how to record decently, whip up a quick tune, and post?

Do you even riff? Hope you've been practicing.

Give us your best estimate.

Here is the deal I was addressing your girlfriend not you. I heard your pathetic clip. Let's get your sweetheart Solspirit to post and I will be more than happy to join in.

Also let's not junk up Jolly's tread if you want to talk PM me. I will give you my number and we can talk like men if you are one.

I think if Randy were still alive, he would have gone through periods of reinvention by now, on a Miles Davis kind of level.

I pride myself on being slightly less insane than I was in my youth.

For what? Of me on stage moving so it can be rated as shambling or prancing? No, but there are enough out there if you want to see one...

That's right.

It's called a "groove". Then tack on rhythms and solo(s).

And I whipped it up, from start to finish, in about a hour one evening.

But dollars to donuts you'll make some excuse not to post anything, cuz you've got nothing.

Oh no, you don't get to weasel your way out of this. I produced, now it's your turn to show everyone if you've got the goods.

I don't wanna funk up Jolly's thread either. Maybe I'll start a new thread asking where your clip is. How'd that suit ya?

Dude I am not going to sit down and learn a song I am not going to play with my band. Unlike you, I have a life outside of this forum. I have no time for your senanagians.

You are not a man of your word, and you're all talk. Anyways, here's a new thread where you can post your contribution once you decide to man up.
